Usui Reiki

Reiki (pronounced Ray-key) is a Japanese word meaning Universal Life Energy, an energy which is all around us. Reiki supports all forms of treatment both orthodox and complementary.

There is no belief system attached to Reiki so anyone can receive or learn to give a Reiki treatment, the only prerequisite is the desire to be healed. Reiki healing can be given anywhere at any time as no special equipment is needed. The practitioner is a channel which the energy is drawn through by the need or imbalance in the recipient.

Neither person has to use any effort of will or concentration during this process. As running water smooths the jagged edges of a rock until it is small enough to roll away, Reiki flows to the areas of need, soothing pain and supporting the body's natural ability to heal itself. Reiki restores balance in one's life.

2012 - What Will Happen and How You Can Be Ready To Play Your Part

Why is 2012 such an important year?

Astrologically speaking, 2012 marks the end of a 26,000 year cycle which was recognized by the Mayans, Incas, Aztecs, Maoris and most of the ancient indigenous cultures.

It is also the end of the Atlantis experiment which has lasted for the 260,000 culminating 21.12.2012. Quite a date then!

But what will happen on or around this pivotal date?

Well, simply put, we begin a transformational shift as the planet and all sentient beings living upon her move towards ascension.

This therefore represents the greatest opportunity ever for spiritual growth and each of us needs to be ready to play our part...

Working with Crystal Consciousness during 2012

It has been long since been prophesied that 2012 heralds a period of radical change.

In preparation for the intensification of such energies it is helpful to work with specific crystals in order to enable us to open up to the higher realms by boosting our frequency. During this highly experiential half day workshop, we will focus upon deepening our links to these crystals through specific attunement processes as originally used in ancient Egyptian mystery school teachings.

Each participant will receive their own set of crystals to take away for ongoing spiritual development use during this crucial period of Earth transition.

Working with Crystals and Angelic Consciousness

Combining Crystals and Angelic Consciousness is a powerful process that utilizes the healing energy of the Archangels and Angels in conjunction with healing energy of Crystals to bring about powerful change.

Crystal Healing and Angel Healing are both wonderful, non-intrusive modalities which empower the body to heal itself.

Crystals have been used for thousands of years for adornment and also for their profound healing properties.

This workshop will show you how to bring together these two powerful streams of divine healing to leave you or your client feeling deep peace and well being by cleansing the chakras and aura and dissolving any blocks in the physical body and the body's etheric layers.
